

[remove highlighting]

9.100.030 Pigs and livestock.

A. It is unlawful to keep any pig, hog, sheep, bull, stallion, mare, cow, burro, jack, jenny, mule, goat, kid, horse or similar animal in the city except that such animals may be kept in an RE zone not to exceed a total combination of three and providing all of them are kept at least sixty feet from any property line and forty feet from the residence of the property in which they are kept.

B. The city planner may prohibit those animals which are permitted by this section if findings are made that the animals create an unsanitary condition or other public nuisance.

C. Variation from the above regulations may be approved by the planning commission upon proper appeal of the city planner's decision.

(Ord. 554 § 1, 2001; Ord. 436 § 1, 1996; Ord. 80 Art. V(V)(3), 1984)

[remove highlighting]

9.100.020 Fowl and similar animals.

A. It is unlawful to keep fowl, rabbits, guinea pigs or similar animals in the city except that such animals may be kept in an R-E zone not to exceed a total combination of three and providing all of them are kept at least twenty feet from any house built or used for human habitation. Roosters or other fowl which constitute a nuisance by their loud cries, are not allowed in any zone.

B. The city planner may prohibit those animals which are permitted by this section if findings are made that the animals create an unsanitary condition or other public nuisance.

C. Variation from the above regulations may be approved by the planning commission upon proper appeal of the city planner's decision.

(Ord. 554 § 1, 2001; Ord. 436 § 1, 1996; Ord. 80 Art. V(V)(2), 1984)