Instructions for Law Enforcement

Enforcing the Restraining Order

This order is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Restraining and Protective Orders System (CARPOS). If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then must enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Start Date and End Date of Orders

This order starts on the date next to the judge's signature on page 4. The order ends on the expiration date in item ④ on page 1.

Arrest Required if Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed the order, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Pen. Code, §§ 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6. Agencies are encouraged to enter violation messages into CARPOS.

Notice/Proof of Service

The law enforcement agency must first determine if the restrained person had notice of the order. Consider the restrained person "served" (given notice) if (Pen. Code, § 836(c)(2)):

- The officer sees a copy of the Proof of Service or confirms that the Proof of Service is on file; or
- The restrained person was informed of the order by an officer.

An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order and proof of service in CARPOS. If proof of service on the restrained person cannot be verified, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then enforce it.

This is a Court Order.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, this order remains in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The order can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, § 13710(b).)

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced in the following priority (see Pen. Code, § 136.2 and Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2), 6405(b)):

1. Emergency Protective Order (EPO): If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), provisions (e.g., stay-away order) that are more restrictive than in the other restraining/protective orders must be enforced. Provisions of another order that do not conflict with the EPO must be enforced.
2. No-Contact Order: If a restraining/protective order includes a no-contact order, the no-contact order must be enforced. Item 5a(2) is an example of a no-contact order.
3. Criminal Protective Order (CPO): If none of the orders include an EPO or a no-contact order, the most recent CPO must be enforced. (Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2) and 6405(b).) Additionally, a CPO issued in a criminal case involving charges of domestic violence, Penal Code sections 261, 261.5, or former 262, or charges requiring sex offender registration must be enforced over any civil court order. (Pen. Code, § 136.2(e)(2).) All provisions in the civil court order that do not conflict with the CPO must be enforced.
4. Civil Restraining Orders: If there is more than one civil restraining order (e.g., domestic violence, juvenile, elder abuse, civil harassment), then the order that was issued last must be enforced. Provisions that do not conflict with the most recent civil restraining order must be enforced.

(Clerk will fill out this part.)

—Clerk's Certificate—

I certify that this Temporary Restraining Order is a true and correct copy of the original on file in the court.

Attachment 7a(3) – Describe Harassment

On Saturday, January 27th, my husband and I were attending the monthly meeting of the Democrats of the Desert at the Palm Desert Library on the College of the Desert Main Campus. The guest speaker was Joe Duffle, president of UFCW Local 1167, representing his union to our membership of about 75 in attendance.

During the forum, many members asked Mr. Duffle questions about union membership, how the union was addressing automation, and how they endorse candidates. Mr. Duffle even joked about how he gets emails from members from Temecula who do not like who the union endorsed, but he stated instead of emailing them back a message, he would show up at their work to discuss the matter with them in person.

I asked the following question in the Open Forum (paraphrasing):

I know you are part of the union endorsement process for political candidates, and there are candidates that are supportive of Project Labor Agreements or Project Stabilization Agreements, so help me understand why you endorse candidates that have not been effective in delivering those agreements. Can you explain it to us on how you determine who to support?

Mr. Duffle responds:

We have friends that we support and look at those who do support the Project Labor Agreements, but each union must determine on their own who they will support and who they won't. It's really up to them.

Joe Duffle didn't seem angry or upset at the question and responded very cordially. Then a few more people asked more questions from the audience.

About 3:40 pm, most questions had been asked and the meeting was ending and people began filing out slowly as they tend to socialize with one another, talking with candidates, each other, etc.

Towards the exit door of the room, Joe Duffle stood talking with a person, and then a line of people that wanted to talk to him formed with about 6 people waiting in line. Mary Jane Sanchez, a candidate and former trustee for COD Area 2, was next in line and I was two people behind her. Mary Jane Sanchez said, "hello".

Joe Duffle replies in a hostile manner, "Did you have Joel ask that question of me for you?" She calmly replies, "No."

I could hear Joe Duffle's question as I was just a few feet away, I respond to him in a professional manner, "Mary Jane did not ask me to ask that question, it was something I wanted to know the answer to, as it appears that candidates are not being supported because you're aligned with the Boys".

Duffle responds agitatedly, "What do you mean by the boys?"

I replied in a professional voice, "I think you know what I am saying, you mentioned that you support "friends," yet they have not looked out in the interest of your members." "Are you looking out for the interests of your members or just your friends? This is the type of stuff that we need to clean up, it's corruption and we need to cut it out. And I'm here to help cut it out so it doesn't continue."

Joe Duffle blows up in an instant and starts yelling, "You're threatening to take me out?"

I respond calmly, "No, that's not what I am saying. What I'm saying is it's time to eliminate any corruption."

Joe Duffle yells into my face in a fit of rage, "So, you're trying to take me out? I'll fucking take you out"

My husband, Chris Parman, was close by and went up to both Joe Duffle and I trying to diffuse Joe Duffle's rage by saying "Let's calm down."

All of a sudden, Joe Duffle uses both hands and shoves me backwards onto some folding tables used for fliers, pushing the tables and me several feet back from where the tables were positioned. Joe Duffle keeps yelling, "I'll take you out, you motherfucker, I'll take you out!"

He uses his two closed fist, like fist bumping, and hits me hard in the chest, and then continues, ranting "I'll take you out", then steps back two feet from me while I am lying flat on the table stunned that I have just been physically attacked and lunges again at me with two closed fists and hits me again in the chest and continues ranting, "I'll take you fucking out!"

I yell out in fear, "Someone call the police!"

Joe Duffle then steps back as people in the room are just in shock that he physically attacked me. Joe Duffle storms out of the community room and I was told continued a raging rant in the parking lot to several club members. My husband called 9-1-1 and asks for the police to respond.

Again, this violent, physical battery was done in front of the Palm Desert Mayor Karina Quintanilla, former Palm Springs Councilmember Ginny Foat, and most of the 75 attendees there who were seniors.

I fear he will do what he repeated over and over in a fit of rage, that he would "take me out!" He is approximately 5'4", 240 pounds, and 10 years younger than me.

What is "service"?

Service is the act of giving your court papers to the other party in your case. There are different ways to serve the other party: in person, by mail, and others.

Why do my court papers need to be served?

Before a judge can grant a civil harassment restraining order (that can last up to five years), the person you want a restraining order against must know about your request and have a chance to go to court to explain their side. Also, if a restraining order is in place, the police cannot arrest the restrained person for violating the restraining order until the restrained person is served with the order.

What is "personal service"?

Personal service is when someone, known as a server, personally delivers your court papers to the other party.

In most cases, these forms must be served on the other party by personal service:

- ▶ Form CH-109;
- ▶ Form CH-100;
- ▶ Form CH-110;
- ▶ Form CH-120 (leave this form blank);
- ▶ Form CH-120-INFO; and
- ▶ Form CH-250 (leave this form blank).

Who can serve my court papers?

Any adult who is not protected by the restraining order can serve your court papers. You cannot serve your own court papers.

Some situations may be dangerous. Think about people's safety when deciding who you want to serve your papers.

A sheriff or marshal will serve your court papers for free if:

- The court granted you a fee waiver; or
- The restraining order is based on stalking, violence, or a credible threat of violence.

A registered process server is a business you pay to deliver papers. To hire a process server, look for "process server" on the internet or in the yellow pages.

How do I have my court papers served?

○ Step 1: Choose a server

The person who gives your court papers to the other party is called a server. Your server must be at least 18-years-old. They must not be protected by the restraining order or involved in your case. This means that you cannot serve your own court papers.

○ Step 2: Have your server give your court papers to the other party

Give your server these instructions:

- ① Before you serve the forms, note which forms you have, including the name of the form and the form number. See form CH-200 for a list of forms.
- ② Find the person you need to serve. Make sure you are serving the right person by asking the person's name.
- ③ Give the person the papers. If the person refuses to take the papers, put them on the ground or somewhere next to the person. The person doesn't have to touch or sign for the papers. It is okay if they tear them up.
- ④ Fill out form CH-200 completely and sign.
- ⑤ File form CH-200 with the court or give form CH-200 to the person who is asking for the restraining order so they can file it.

○ Step 3: File proof with the court

The court needs proof that service happened and that it was done correctly. If your server was successful, have your server fully complete and sign form CH-200. The person you want restrained does not sign anything.

File form CH-200 with the court in your case as soon as possible. This information will automatically go into a restraining order database that police have access to.

If the sheriff or marshal served your court papers, they may use another form for proof besides form CH-200. Make sure a copy is filed with the court and that you get a copy.

CH-200-INFO What Is "Proof of Personal Service"?

When is the deadline to serve my court papers?

It depends. To know the exact date, you need to look at two items on form CH-109. Follow these steps:

- Step 1: Look at the court date listed under ③ on page 1.

③ Notice of Court Hearing
A court hearing is scheduled on

Hearing Date	→	Date: _____
		Dept.: _____

- Step 2: Look at the number of days written in ⑥ on page 2.

⑥ Service of Documents by the Person
At least five ___ days before the

- Step 3: Look at a calendar. Subtract the number of days in ⑥ from the court date. That's the deadline to have your court papers served. It's okay to serve your court papers before the deadline.

If nothing is written in ⑥, you must have your court papers served at least five days before your court date.

What happens if I can't get my court papers served before the court date?

You will need to ask the court to reschedule (continue) your court date. Fill out and file form CH-115 and form CH-116. These forms ask the judge for a new court date and to make any temporary orders last until the end of the new court date.

If the judge gives you a new court date, the person you want restrained will have to be served with form CH-115, form CH-116, and the original papers you filed. You should keep a copy of form CH-115, form CH-116, and a copy of your original paperwork. That way, the police will know your orders are still in effect.

For more information on asking for a new court date, read form CH-115-INFO.

What if the other party is avoiding (evading) service or cannot be located?

If you've tried many times to serve the the restrained person, and you can show the judge that the restrained person is avoiding (evading) service or cannot be located, you may ask the court to allow you to serve another way. If you want to make this request, at your first court date tell the judge details about your attempts to have the restrained person served. The judge may require a written statement for this.

Read form CH-205-INFO, What If the Person I Want Protection from Is Avoiding (Evading) Service or Cannot Be Located?, for more information.
